Burglars Captured.

Hurgiars Captured.
Yesterday morning about 2:30 Frank Barrett and Harry Springer were caught in the act of trying to rob the Cleveland Clothing Co's, store on Hanover street in Martin's Ferry. They broke the glass in the door and the noise attracted the attention of police officers John Fisher and Fritz Och, who hurried to the scene. Barrett and Springer saw the officers and started to run, but both were captured and locked up.

Moundsville Post Installed.

On Saturday evening last Holliday Post G. A. R., and Stephens, of this city, accompanied by members of Branum post, of Bridgeport, O., and Hancock, of Benwood, in all about sixty-five men, went to Moundsville to muster in J. C. Caldwell Post No. 21, of that city. Owing to some misunderstanding only forty-six members appeared for muster. The Wheeling team oxemplified the work, and also had their steriopticon with them, and altogether an interesting and profitable time was had. Dr. Hall was elected communder of the new post, Remarks were made by several, members, after which all sat down to an elegant banquot, which was heartily discussed. The visitors reached home on the midnight train.

The Ohio Valley Trades and Labor Assembly met in regular session at their hall yesterday afternoon with President Robertson in the chair and Secretary Sallsbury at his post.

Plasterers' Union No. 39 reported a violation of agreement by Frank B. Coat, and urged that a boycoit be placed on him, which was egreed to. Hodearriers' Union No. 5026 reported the same in regard to Frank Perkins, and similar action was taken by the assembly.

Credentials of the following delegates were received and filed:

Harry, Taylor, from Plasterers' Union No. 68, and J. W. Spriggs, McGormack Bucoy and C. W. Lauer, Carponters' Union Mo. 186, of Stoubenville.
The musical muddle between the minor bands of this city and vicinity and the Musical Union, which has been under consideration by the organization committee reported through its chairman, J. H. Burtt, that several conferences had been held but no agreement had been arrived at. The mat er in controversy is the classification of musiciaus. The subject was finally referred to the

The boycott of the Corner Stone was reported to be progressing.

John F. Jones presented his credentials as delegate to the assembly from Local Musical Union No. 84.

Arbiter Riley reported nothing now in the case of Justice Arble,

A communication from the Steubenville Carpenters' Union was read requesting that Armour's beef and cold storage company at Steubenville be placed under a boycott, as they did not pay, union, wages. The request was granted and the matter referred to the arbiter.

A letter from Secretary Evans of the American Federation of Labor stating that Local Union No. 5026 was eighteen months behind in dues was read, and measures were taken to stir the union up in the matter.

It was announced that P. J. McGuire, first vice president of the American Federation of Labor and secretary of the Carpenters' National Union, would leviure in the Grand Opera House on the ovening of June 19 on labor topics.

The following gentlemen were named as a general committee, to make provision for the suitable celebration of Labor Day, the president and secretary being ex-officio members of the same: G. W. Chitton, J. H. Burtt, Henry Floto, Peter Ferrell, M. Grogan, S. C. Howell, Jerry Mead, W. H. Riley, Ned Sims, Fred Williams, Osborne Gray, Abe Stamm, Charles Dean, J. H. Purcell, C. H. Bryson.

A delegate reported that Meleter brothers were furnishing non-union coal to private and other consumers, contrary to the action of the assembly. The matter was referred to the arbiter for investigation.

The miners strike came up when a reference was unde by a delegate to the presence of troops in this city without warrant or authority of, the sherill. One delegate complained of a publication that gave all the credit of their removal from the city to Sherill Franzheim and none to the action of the committee of the Assembly. President Robertson stated the facts in the case which werethat the sherilf han earses which werethat the sherilf han not asked for the troops, and that when the matter was presented by the committee he had an immediate conference with General Spillman, and that shortly thereafter the troops in this city without warrant or estruction of the property.

Mr. J. H. Burtt said it was no use to quibble in regard to what influence effected the removal of the troops so long as the object of the committee had been accomplished. It was the duty of every member of the assembly to use his influence for order and peece so as to show the people of the country that this commutity could take car
